

Panavision On Cue

April 2010 Newsletter for the Panavision Group

Settled in at Lane Cove!

From Artarmon to Lane Cove, the final touches have been applied to our purpose designed new home and as a picture speaks a thousand words, we thought we would share with you the progress we have made since we first started the renovations.

STREET TV Panavision lends a hand to Foxtel's Street TV disadvantaged kids

Street TV is a six week film and television course which is run by Foxtel in conjunction with the Salvation Army's Oasis Centre - an organisation which assists young people in crisis. The course aims to improve the lives of young disadvantaged Australians with new training skills in writing, sound, video, scripting, location planning and directions as well as editing and post production.
